

Come and study for a PhD at one of the UK's leading Humanities and Social Science Research Centres

The Centre for European & International Studies Research obtained a top five rating (research of international excellence) in the UK's last Research Assessment Exercise.

We are currently taking applications for bursary candidates to register for a full-time PhD, starting in October 2008. Candidates may apply for bursaries in any of these subject areas or disciplines:

- European Studies inc. Modern & Contemporary European History, European Politics and Public Policy, European Social & Cultural Theory
- French and Francophone Studies
- English Literature
- Film and Media
- Modern Languages, Linguistics and Sociolinguistics
- Postcolonial and Colonial Studies
- Modern British History
- Women's & Gender Studies

For details of potential supervisors and their areas of expertise, please visit our website: www.port.ac.uk/ceisr

Support for three years is subject to satisfactory progress. Bursary awards include full fees and a maintenance allowance, which in 2007/8 was £12,300 per annum.

For further details and to apply, please contact Michelle Matthews.
